Religious believers often claim that the universe is fine-tuned for life, and that this is evidence of God. In fact, this might be the modern believer's favorite argument for God, and the one considered to be the strongest by atheists, including Richard Dawkins.. As such, it invites a careful examination.

The Fine-Tuning Argument, Generalized

Modern pop culture declares that atheism is a "scientific" worldview. But most of the key contributors to modern science were theists and often Christian.

Objections to evolution have been raised since evolutionary ideas came to prominence in the 19th century. When Charles Darwin published his 1859 book On the Origin of Species, his theory of evolution (the idea that species arose through descent with modification from a single common ancestor in a process driven by natural selection) initially met opposition from scientists with different ...

This Bell Curve is, in fact, quite thoroughly debunked. Not the finding that there are racial differences in IQ test scores (this is well known), but the actual thesis of the book, that racial or genetic differences in IQ scores mean that environmental interventions addressed at differentials in adult success are useless.

Exorcism and Demonic Possession. Exorcism (from Late Latin exorcismus "to adjure") is the practice of evicting demons or other evil spiritual entities from a person or place which they are believed to have possessed. The practice is quite ancient and still part of the belief system of many religions. The person performing the exorcism, known as an exorcist, is often a priest, or any individual ...

Demonic Possession. Demonic Possession is when Satan or a demon enters and takes over the physical and mental capabilities of a victim, however, the soul and will remains free. Satan acts through the victim without the victim's consent, thus the victim is morally blameless. Satan does not act alone when he possesses an individual.
