A Free Man's Worship - Skeptic

And this book, a sort of "best of" of Russell's long career, is a wonderful place to begin that corrective. Herein are some of Russell Bertrand Russell was undoubtedly one of the greatest minds of the 20th century.

The Basic Writings of Bertrand Russell: 1903-1959 by Russell thinks that Meinong's act of thinking is the same as the person or the self of thinking. This assumption underlies this text. Meinong believes that thinking is the act of a person or soul. Russell, without logical evidence, claims that this is unnecessary, since the person is nothing else or above the relationships of thoughts.
