experience. Pure philosophy is philosophy that presents its doctrines solely on the basis of a priori principles. Pure philosophy can in turn be divided into two : when it is entirely formal it is logic; when it is confined to definite objects of the understanding, it is metaphysics. In this way there arises the idea of a two-fold ...

Metaphysics. It is not easy to say what metaphysics is. Ancient and Medieval philosophers might have said that metaphysics was, like chemistry or astrology, to be defined by its subject-matter: metaphysics was the science that studied being as such or the first causes of things or things that do not change.
